Local Produce

We are proud to support local suppliers.

We source a range of our produce from local suppliers. We would like to share some of their stories with you.

Our locally sourced fish is supplied by Kingfisher Brixham. They have been operating in the region for 25 years and work closely with the Marine Stewardship Council to ensure sustainability and responsibility in their sourcing.

Our dairy goods are supplied by Hawkrigge Farmhouse Dairy Produce, who are a family run business, established in 1976 and are based in the heart of Devonshire.

Judith Taylor of the Tiverton Sausage Company, using her own farms Gloucester Old Spot pigs, produces our sausages.

Our bread and scones are baked by Adrian Wren from his Number 33 bakery in Tiverton.

Mary Barlow of B's hand makes our honey fudge served with your coffee from honey produced by her six hives.

And of course our pies come from Tom Culls award winning Dartmoor kitchen in Clyst St Mary.
